

ThreatSpike

End-Point Security System

With Monitoring & incident Reporting Available

ThreatSpike is a unique 5-in-1 end point security platform for enterprises, which allows organizations to respond to identified risks and instantly implement protective controls such as web filtering, data loss prevention and network zoning.

What features does ThreatSpike provide?

- Forensics.
- Data Loss Prevention.
- Web Filtering.
- Asset Management.
- Network Firewall.

KEY FEATURES OF THREATSPIKE AI-ML

ENABLED HEURISTIC DLP SOLUTION -

We worked hard to ship our two significant updates last year. These improvements to the product were the results of the combined efforts of our engineering teams.

- Works Real Time.
- Warns Proactively.
- URL Filtering.
- Phishing Simulation.
- Scheduled Reporting.
- Controls inflow and outflow of data.
- Sensitive Data Identification.
- Asset Management.
- Patch Management.
- Cyber Forensics.
- Critical Vulnerability Notification.
- Malware Notification.

Use of ThreatSpike

- ThreatSpike provides insight into various evolving cyber threats, data leakage, privilege misuse and viruses on your network.
- ThreatSpike collects records and continuously analyzes organization's network traffic in order to detect harmful activity.